

THE MARYLEBONE

THE DOYLE COLLECTION · LONDON

WELCOME TO THE DOYLE COLLECTION

At The Doyle Collection, each of our hotels possesses its own distinct and unique personality, yet is intrinsically part of one family - sharing a warmth of welcome and relaxed style of luxury defined by generations of Irish hospitality.

Founded in Dublin, today The Doyle Collection hotels are also to be found in London, Washington D.C, Bristol and Cork – each set within the heart of the city, yet entirely cocooned from the hustle and bustle outside.

The experience promises heart, character and soul. From the personal curation of the design, to the glamour and conviviality within our social spaces, to the walls filled with art personally collected over decades, to - above all - our focus on people. Because luxury isn't just seen, it's felt.
