

HAZLITT'S
1718

Batty
Langley's
— 1724 —

THE ROOKERY
1764

“In a city where chic hotels compete to be ultra-modern,
it’s refreshing to check into the past.”

The Sunday Times

HAZLITT'S 1718

Traditional Georgian townhouse hotel with 30 rooms & suites
in the heart of London

Room service breakfast, lunch & dinner
Honesty Bar
Sitting rooms
Complimentary WiFi
Fully Air-conditioned

Location:
SOHO W1D 3JA
THEATRELAND
COVENT GARDEN
LEICESTER SQUARE

HAZLITT'S 1718

We name all our rooms because we don't believe in numbering our guests.

HAZLITT'S
1718

The Georgians didn't have bathrooms so we have created what we think they should have had.

The image shows a richly decorated bedroom. In the foreground, a large bed with a white and gold ornate frame is visible. The headboard is particularly elaborate, featuring a central oval mirror and a small portrait. The bed is dressed in a dark red patterned duvet and several pillows. To the right, a window is covered with heavy, dark red silk curtains. Below the window is a wooden desk with a chair, a lamp, and a small cabinet. On the wall above the desk hangs a framed painting of a woman in a red dress. The walls are dark wood-paneled, and the overall atmosphere is one of historical elegance.

HAZLITT'S
1718

All rooms are generously furnished with pictures and antiques.
The beds are either 17th Century carved oak or Georgian 4
posters, windows are hung with heavy silk curtains.

HAZLITT'S
1718

“It’s like staying at a potty English uncle’s when he’s not at home.”
ANTHONY BOURDAIN

HAZLITT'S 1718

At Hazlitt's our philosophy is simple. We have set out to create the kind of accommodation we ourselves would love to find in the heart of one of the world's great cities.

HAZLITT'S
1718

“Breakfast is taken in bed - what an inconvenience.” TATLER