WHERE CREATIVITY, CULTURE AND GASTRONOMY MEET THE MEDITERRANEAN

CULTURE & ARCHITECTURE

Barcelona is a city that rewards curiosity at every turn. Guided tours through the Gothic Quarter bring centuries of layered history to life, while the singular genius of Antoni Gaudí, whose UNESCO-listed masterpieces include the Sagrada Família and Park Güell, provides a backdrop that doesn't just impress delegates, it genuinely moves them.

GASTRONOMY

Few cities take their food culture as seriously as Barcelona. Private tapas tours through the Gothic Quarter offer a convivial, flavour-led exploration of Catalan tradition, perfect as an ice-breaker or post-session social, while the Penedès wine region, just an hour from the city, offers exclusive vineyard visits combining stunning scenery with exceptional cava and still wines. Every group meal here, from neighbourhood classics to Michelin-starred dining rooms, is an experience in itself.

NATURE EXCURSIONS

Just 50 minutes from Barcelona, Montserrat rises dramatically from the Catalanian plain to offer a half-day group excursion like no other. This UNESCO-protected mountain sanctuary combines breathtaking natural scenery with deep cultural significance, a powerful contrast to the city, and an experience that will stay with delegates long after the trip is over.
